ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

One of the original Dinner Plain properties, this large house has been recently updated and is ideal for two families accommodating up to 10 people. The pillow-top queen beds ensuring a great night's sleep after a long day skiing or walking.

With gorgeous views over the National Park you can't go wrong. The garage at the front of the house can be accessed from the entrance foyer and the drying room is off the entrance foyer. On the ground floor is a queen bedroom, a bedroom with a set of bunks, a laundry area and a bathroom. The living area is at the rear of the house, to take advantage of the uninterrupted views.

There is a well equipped kitchen, walk in pantry, dining area and large corner leather lounge, heated by a large wood fire heater. There is a door leading out onto the large deck, where there is an outdoor table and chairs. Upstairs is a queen bedroom, a room with 2 sets of bunks, and a bathroom. The house has a very efficient ducted heating system. The house is pet friendly.
